

Nancy J. Quay, LMSW

Nancy has been a psychotherapist in private practice since 1997. She has had the privilege of working with people of different ethnicities, races, and cultural backgrounds on a wide variety of issues. Her practice includes men, women, and lesbian/gay/bisexual/ transgendered people. She works with adults and teenagers.

In addition to standard psychotherapy, Nancy offers addiction assessments and works with individuals, couples, and families affected by addiction. She also provides life coaching for both men and women.

Nancy earned her Master's in Social Work from the University of Michigan. She has lived in Ann Arbor for over 30 years and can still get lost on the one-way streets. She enjoys many local treasures like the Farmer's Market, Kerrytown, Gallup, Fuller, and Argo Parks, and the various Huron Metro Parks around the area. She volunteers with numerous local non-profits as a Master Gardener and enjoys working in her own gardens.
